

BRISTOW FIGHTING AGAINST WARBURG

Kansas Senator Opposes His Confirmation for Reserve Board.

That Paul M. Warburg, of New York, will be bitterly opposed for confirmation as a member of the Federal Reserve Board became plain today. Mr. Warburg will appear before the Senate Banking Committee to answer questions, but this decision has not quieted opposition.

Senator Bristow of Kansas made it clear that he will fight confirmation to the limit.

Senator Bristow said: "I think it the duty of every patriotic man to oppose such an appointment. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. has been mixed up in most of Wall Street's rottenness. Why not appoint young Morgan to the board? He would be just as fitting a selection."

"If they're going to confirm Warburg, they ought to put Jones on a pedestal," he continued.

Senator Hitchcock, on the other hand, who talked with Warburg, said he had been favorably impressed.

"I told Mr. Warburg," said Senator Hitchcock, "that I believed if he talked to the committee along the lines he did to me, he would be favorably received."

Senator Owen, chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, will issue a call, probably today, for a meeting of the committee to hear Warburg.

Illinois Delegation Registers Crane Protest

When it leaked out today that Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, had quietly slipped into the White House to dine with the President, and that a boom had been started for his selection as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, an emphatic protest was immediately registered by members of the Illinois Democratic delegation.

It was recalled that, while Crane had been a heavy contributor to the Wilson campaign fund, he was reported to have stipulated that none of his money should be used in behalf of the Illinois State ticket.

Pitkin, of Louisiana, and Miss M. Cornelia Lusk, of Mississippi, have been transferred from operations on the key punch machines and assigned to duties of a sub-clerical character. Temporary appointments as typewriters at $1,000 per annum have been made as follows: Regina A. Fitzsimons, Mary N. Birch, Nina T. Bull, and Caroline F. Leech.

Churches to Take Census Of Tuberculosis Victims

Under the direction of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, a tuberculosis census of thousands of churches in various parts of the United States will be taken next month. The census will be part of the preparation for the fifth annual Tuberculosis Day, to be observed during the week of November 25.

Ministers will be asked to co-operate with the association. They will be requested to report on the number of deaths from tuberculosis, the number of living cases in their parishes, the number of deaths from tuberculosis, the number of members of communicants. These figures will be made the basis of an educational campaign, which will culminate in the Tuberculosis Day movement, at which occasion sermon and lecture literature will be distributed free to laymen.

We'll send you by Parcel Post anything you want without additional expense.

Miss Hartshorn says that she has experimented with goldfish, and finds that they will eat the mosquito larvae when they are able to leave the water in which they are hatched.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.—George Feetar, a liquor salesman, who bears a remarkable likeness to Secretary Bryan, received a rousing ovation intended for the Secretary at Hughesville, Pa., yesterday, and spent the night before a large crowd of Chautauquians realized their mistake. Feetar denied he even carried grape juice as a side line.

CANTON, Pa.—The coroner's jury refused to accept the suicide theory in the case of Mrs. Stanley Taska, a bride of two weeks, whose body was found in a well near her home, at Gleason, Pa. Physicians testified she had not been drowned, no water having been found in her lungs.

CHESTER, Pa.—A baby show, with negro babies only on exhibition, will be held in this city Thursday, August 20. A committee of physicians will make the awards, the healthiest babies to receive the prize.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—In desertion court here today Mrs. Jessie Welch accused her husband of deserting her, yet admitted she had lived with him only ten days in eighteen years.

When asked to point him out in court she could not do so, although he was seated but a few feet from her.

So attainted was Judge J. D. Miller that he dismissed the charge and placed the costs on her.

HARTFORD, Conn.—Elder Walter Shepard, a trustee of the Shaker colony, in the eastern part of the town of Enfield, confirmed the report last night that the Shaker property—hundreds of acres of valuable tobacco land—would probably be sold within a few days to a syndicate of Hartford and New York capitalists.

Captain Diamond says he was born in Plymouth, Mass., May 1, 1796. He tells stories of pioneer days in Maine and how he provided for his mother while his father fought in the war of 1812. During the civil war he served four years in the quartermaster's department at St. Louis. He never married.

SEATTLE, Wash.—The "lucky tunnel" of the St. Paul road, 12,000 feet through the Cascades at the summit of the Snoqualmie Pass, is completed. SALT LAKE CITY—W. R. Wallace, Democratic national committeeman for Utah, telegraphed yesterday to President Wilson inviting him to visit Utah during the coming campaign and deliver a series of addresses. The invitation was concurred in by the Democratic State central committee, which expects to re-enforce it with a special message asking him to assist the Democratic party in the State by his personal endeavors.

SEATTLE—On his return from a trip over the line as far east as Moberg, S. D., H. B. Earline, vice president of the Milwaukee railroad system, said that the reports of black rust and drought damage had been exaggerated and that crops along the line were not affected.

"The crops look splendid," said Mr. Earline.

DENVER—Testimony is being taken in Denver by Special Examiner Edgar Watkins, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, to find out whether railroads in the intermountain territory are justified in increasing their rates on live stock from 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds to Missouri river points and Chicago.

Graybill, State live stock sanitary commissioner, sent out today a set of new rules effective August 1, regarding the shipments of hogs into the State. The new order is the first step in the fight to eradicate hog cholera from Kansas.

Gains New Complexion By Peeling Her Skin

"Keep still, and heart, and cease repining; behind the clouds is the sun still shining." I was forcibly reminded of these lines when, after months of fretting over my ugly complexion, I found how easy it was to remove the cloudy, muddied skin and bring forth a bright, new complexion. I got an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at my drug-gist's and used this like cold cream every night for two weeks, washing it off mornings. Lo, and behold! That old skin had all peeled off! The healthy young skin underneath gave me a complexion as pure, white and soft as a young girl's. I experienced no discomfort, the skin came off so gradually and gently. Several friends have been similarly benefited. I'm sure any one whose skin is soiled, tanned, withered, or pitted, or freckled, can acquire the loveliest complexion imaginable by using this remarkable treatment.

Another treatment that brought more sunshine was one to remove wrinkles. A face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered sassafras in 1/2 pt. witch hazel, soon erased every line. It's wonderful. —Julia Orr in The Queen. —Adv.

MIDDLE WEST.

CHICAGO—There is cumulative evidence that Raymond Robins is likely to be chosen United States Senator from Illinois next November.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Temperance forces have found what they declare is a joker in the proposed anti-prohibition amendment to the State constitution submitted by the liquor forces of the State. An opinion given by former State Supreme Judge W. Z. Davis, of Marion, declares that if the amendment is adopted every township in the State that does not contain a city or village would be permanently "wet," and that every township now dry would be voted "wet."

MADISON, Wis.—Wisconsinians desiring community institutes for fall have been instructed to apply to the University of Wisconsin's extension division at an early date. The community institute will deal with whatever problems the community has such as health, recreation, child welfare, town and county co-operation, commercial organization, women's community problems, town development, etc.

SOUTH.

TULSA, Okla.—Lost in a 500-acre cornfield for twenty-four hours, with the temperature standing at the 100 notch and no breeze blowing, was the experience of Mike Lingo, a Tulsa county farmer, who is ill at his home near Broken Arrow as the result of his experience.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Samuel M. White, former city comptroller, charged with the embezzlement of $14,500, waived examination in police court, and was held to the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $50,000, in default of which he was remanded to jail.

White is charged with hypothecating bonds of contractors deposited with the city to insure the contracts. He is a member of a prominent Louisville family.

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Charles A. Schuck, of Wheeling, W. Va., was nominated for Congressman-at-large by the Progressive party of West Virginia. In accepting, he condemned the State and national administrations.

GREENVILLE, Tex.—Confederate veterans of Texas gathered here for their annual reunion. There were fewer here today than at the reunion a year ago, and those who were here showed the signs of Time's touch that will make next year's gathering even smaller. A barbecue, company reunions, and recounting of war experiences were on the program.

THE NUMBER OF FLESHY PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY IS DECREASING

The popularity of the physical culture fad, with its accompaniment of discussions regarding diet, has doubtless been responsible for part of the steady, country-wide decrease in overweight; also the last few years have developed several flesh reducers which have been very important factors in causing this decrease. Among these we consider the following one, which can be made at home with very little trouble, as far as the best, and it doubtless costs the least: Put four ounces of parsnips, which you can get from your druggist, in 1-1/2 pints hot water and strain when cool. Take a tablespoonful before meals until weight is where you want it. No harm results from the use of the parsnips treatment, and the flesh is left solid and the skin soft and smooth. —Adv.

Congressmen Protest Boalt's Deportation

Protest against deportation from Vera Cruz of Fred L. Boalt, correspondent, who wrote the "law of flight" story, declared not substantiated by a naval board of inquiry, was made to Secretary of War Garrison today by Congressmen Falconer and Bryan of Washington, on behalf of Boalt's employers. Boalt is a resident of Washington and former constituent of the two Representatives, who filed a brief with Garrison. That the naval trial was "prejudiced and inadequate" and its findings contrary to the evidence was contended by Falconer and Bryan. A new evidence, a "law of flight" incident occurred, similar to that described by Boalt was presented.

LADIES' HAIRDRESSING IN LONDON AND PARIS

Both cities are positively dotted with hairdressing parlors and hair goods establishments. One wonders if the women of these two huge places have time for anything but care of their hair. There are hundreds of makers of switches and wigs and dozens of manufacturers of shampoos. There they use no makeshifts but preparations made for shampooing only and inquiry as to the most popular shampoo brings the reply that carthox is the best. A perfect economical, invigorating shampoo can be cheaply made at home by dissolving a teaspoonful carthox, which every good druggist has, in a cup of hot water. This mixture cleanses thoroughly, and gives to the scalp the vigor that insures hair beauty. Carthox shampoos make the hair feel good and are very beneficial where hair is faded and brittle. Their use will greatly enrich the color of the hair and give to it a beautiful gloss and softness. —Adv.
